

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Adult Basic Education Instructor, Corrections	Department: Adult Basic Education, Corrections
Reports to: Adult Basic Education Community Site Lead	Job status: Exempt

JOB SUMMARY

The Adult Basic Education (ABE) Corrections works with the ABE instructional team to prepare and execute instruction of students. This person can expect to prepare lessons, instruct students, collaborate with staff, contact students regarding progress, and record data.

The Adult Basic Education Instructor working within Corrections should be an engaging instructor who uses performance data to inform instructional decisions, willing to work with a team to accomplish program goals, and conscientious about keeping and recording accurate records. They are responsible for ensuring an educational atmosphere where adult students have the opportunity to fulfill their academic and career goals by earning a High School Equivalency (HSE) Diploma and/or growing their basic skills in Math, Language, Science, Social Studies, and Reading, as demonstrated by progressing through the six Educational Functioning Levels defined by the National Reporting System (NRS) (as evidenced by achieving measurable skills gains).

The ABE Instructor working within Corrections facilities should have an understanding of data-based instruction and the ability to relate and build rapport with people of diverse backgrounds. The instructor should also possess comfort with working in correctional facilities and with those who are incarcerated. They should exhibit proficiency with computers and software, such as G Suite, Google Classroom, and Promethean Boards. They should be reliable, professional, and have excellent interpersonal skills. The Instructor should also be able to differentiate instruction based on student data and needs, and integrate skills and content to deliver cohesive integrated lessons.

This individual should model HopeWorks values and ethics. To be effective in this position, one must be caring, empathetic, conscientious, confidential, culturally-sensitive, and employee-centered and reliable. This individual should adhere to professional standards as outlined by rules and regulations governing their profession
